Unit-II

2. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given below : 5

I believe that the inculcating of proper discipline in the home and in the schools and colleges is essential in the life of any person. I do not believe that the need for discipline is the young is sufficiently appreciated in India people seem to believe that to insist on discipline means being unkind to the young for myself, I believe the reverse, I believe that is the long run it is unkind to the child to let him indulge himself without parental and educational restraint. Discipline does not mean harshness but it does mean guidance a degree of restraining which is necessary for the young of any race otherwise the young waste their strength on objects which they lack the experience to see in full. I regret it as unfortunate to see a boy-often a boy of talent, spirit and imagination, allowed to behave as though he were his own judge of what he should do. He gets a wrong tendency on himself and he wastes his own time and other people's time.

- (i) What is essential is the life of every person?
